Don't be shy. Here are some tips:

1. Briefly explain who you are, and what brings you here?
2. What do you want (i.e. an initial consult or a question about fees or insurance)?
3. When are you available, and how best to reach you (phone, text or email)?

Your email will be sent to the therapist and a copy will be provided to you for your records. Psychology Today does not read or store your email. Please note that email communication may not be entirely secure. Sending an email through this page does not guarantee that the recipient will receive, read, or respond to it and spam filters could prevent its delivery.

Although the therapist is expected to reply by email, we recommend that you also follow up with a phone call. If you would rather communicate via phone, please include your contact number above.

If this is an emergency do not use this form. Call 911 or your nearest hospital.
